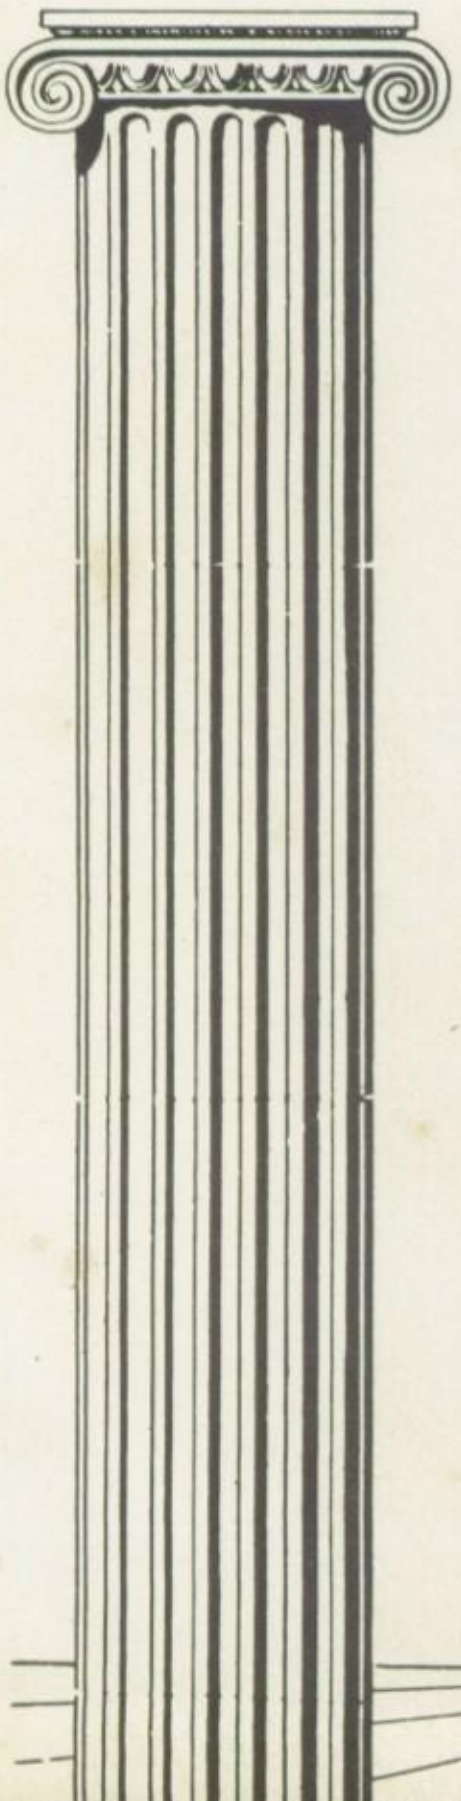
SCHOOL
HONOR ROLL



FOREWORD

As we turn the pages of this yearbook, it brings to mind many memories of our past years at school, and also opens the doors of tomorrow. We are now standing on the threshold of accomplishment. Who can predict our impact on tomorrow's world?

This alone challenges us to set our goals high, grasp opportunity, give service, and face life with hearts filled with courage and hope.

On these pages, you will find our life at A. H. S. in pictures; the four years of life upon which we now place our trust for the future.

Dear Parents:

We, the Senior Class of 1958, wish to express our appreciation by saying "thank you" through the dedication of this yearbook.

This is a small expression of gratitude for the advice and consultation which we received, from 1946 when we were shy little first graders to "adult" seniors. During these twelve years you have shown patience even through adolescence. Your guidance and understanding has made these years a lot of fun. We shall never forget this part of our life.

The Senior Class

WILBUR M. HARDIN

To the seniors of the Arlington High School of 1958, I offer my sincere congratulations. We have given all the help we could to aid you on your way to meet life's problems with courage and honesty. May you have success and happiness.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 2, 1947, a battle against education was begun by twenty first grade students. Our Supreme Commandar was Mr. L. W. Pearl and our Captain was Mrs. Hazel Stiers, who was later replaced by Mrs. Francis Pitts.

During the next seven years this little company of students progressed steadily in the battle of gaining knowledge.

In 1955, we were initiated into high school. Mr. Paul Potts was our Freshman sponsor and our class officers were President, Lawrence Parks; Vice-President, Steve Wooldridge; Secretary, Bill Smith; Treasurer, Bonnie Rucker.

The highlights of our Sophomore year were choosing our class rings. Our sponsor that year was Mr. Robert Hine, and our officers, President, Phil Hester; Vice-President, Steve Wooldrige; Secretary, Bill Smith; Treasurer, Phyllis Logan.

Our Junior year brought us fun, but we also had our job to do -- making money for our Senior trip. That year our main projects was selling candy and "Car Washes." We presented a play that year entitled "It's Great to be Crazy" under the direction of Mrs. Marian White. Our sponsor was Mr. Lewis Thompson and our officers were President, Phil Hester; Vice-President, Steve Wooldridge; Secretary, JoAnn Binder, Treasurer, Florence Parks.

After many years of hard struggle we finally reached our goal. Our sponsor again was Mr. Thompson and our officers are President, Lawrence Parks; Vice-President, Phil Hester; Secretary, Steve Wooldreige; Treasurer, Florence Parks. We presented a play entitled "The Boarding House Reach" and dedicated our year book to our parents. Then the most exciting event of the year, our Senior Trip. Last, but certainly not least was our Graduation, the end of a wonderful twelve years at Arlington.

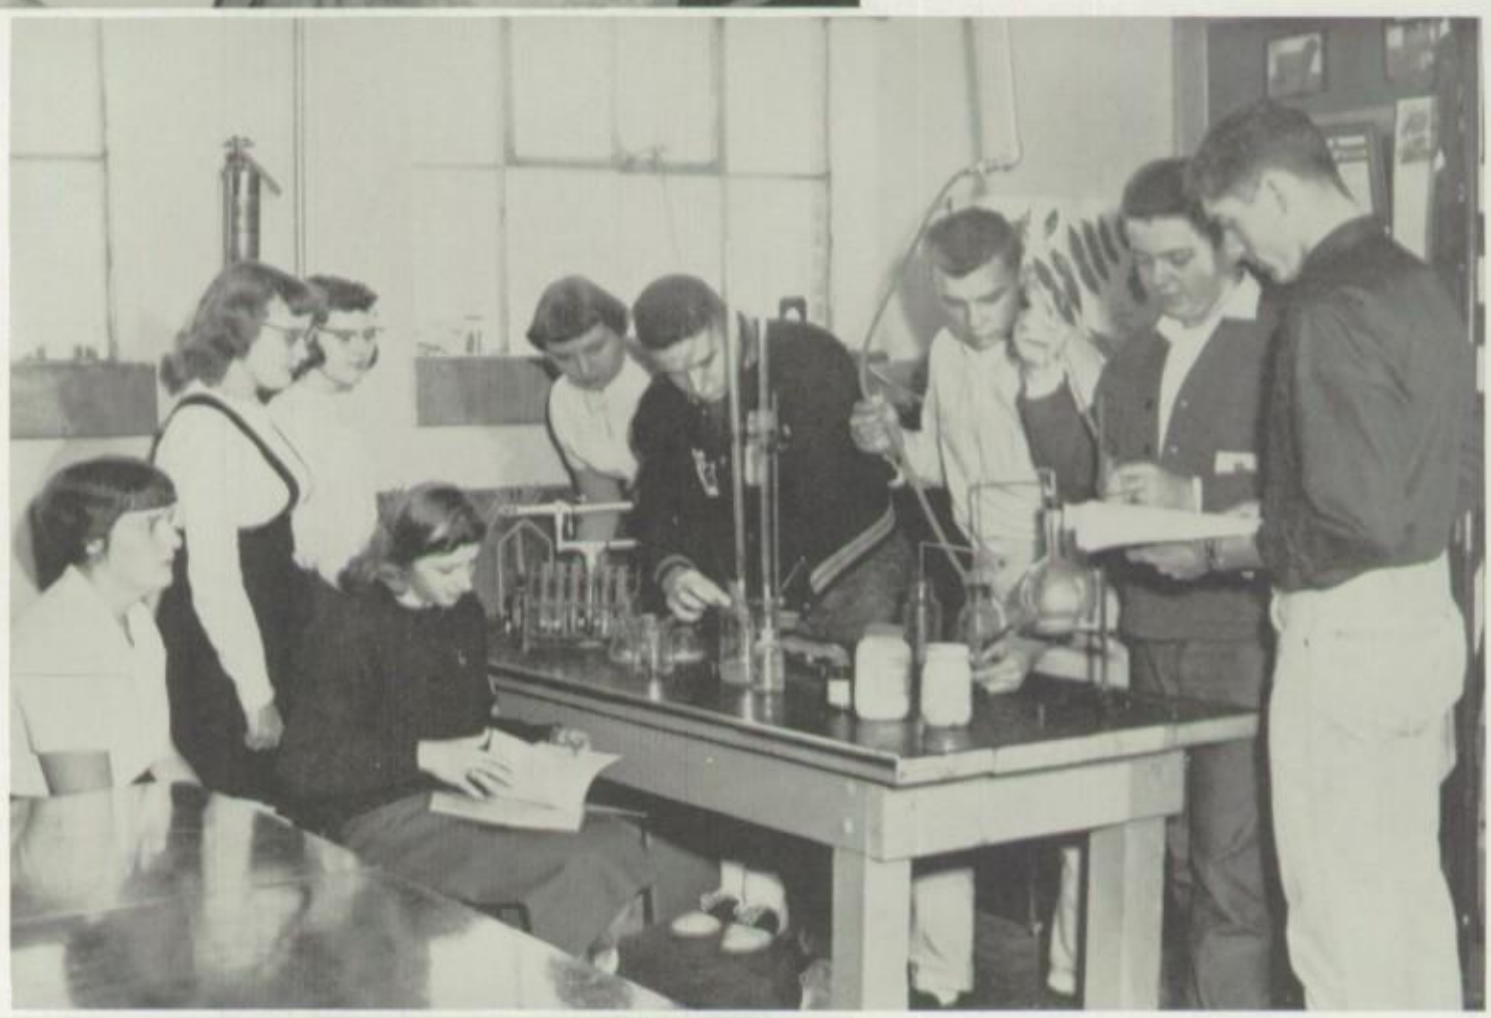
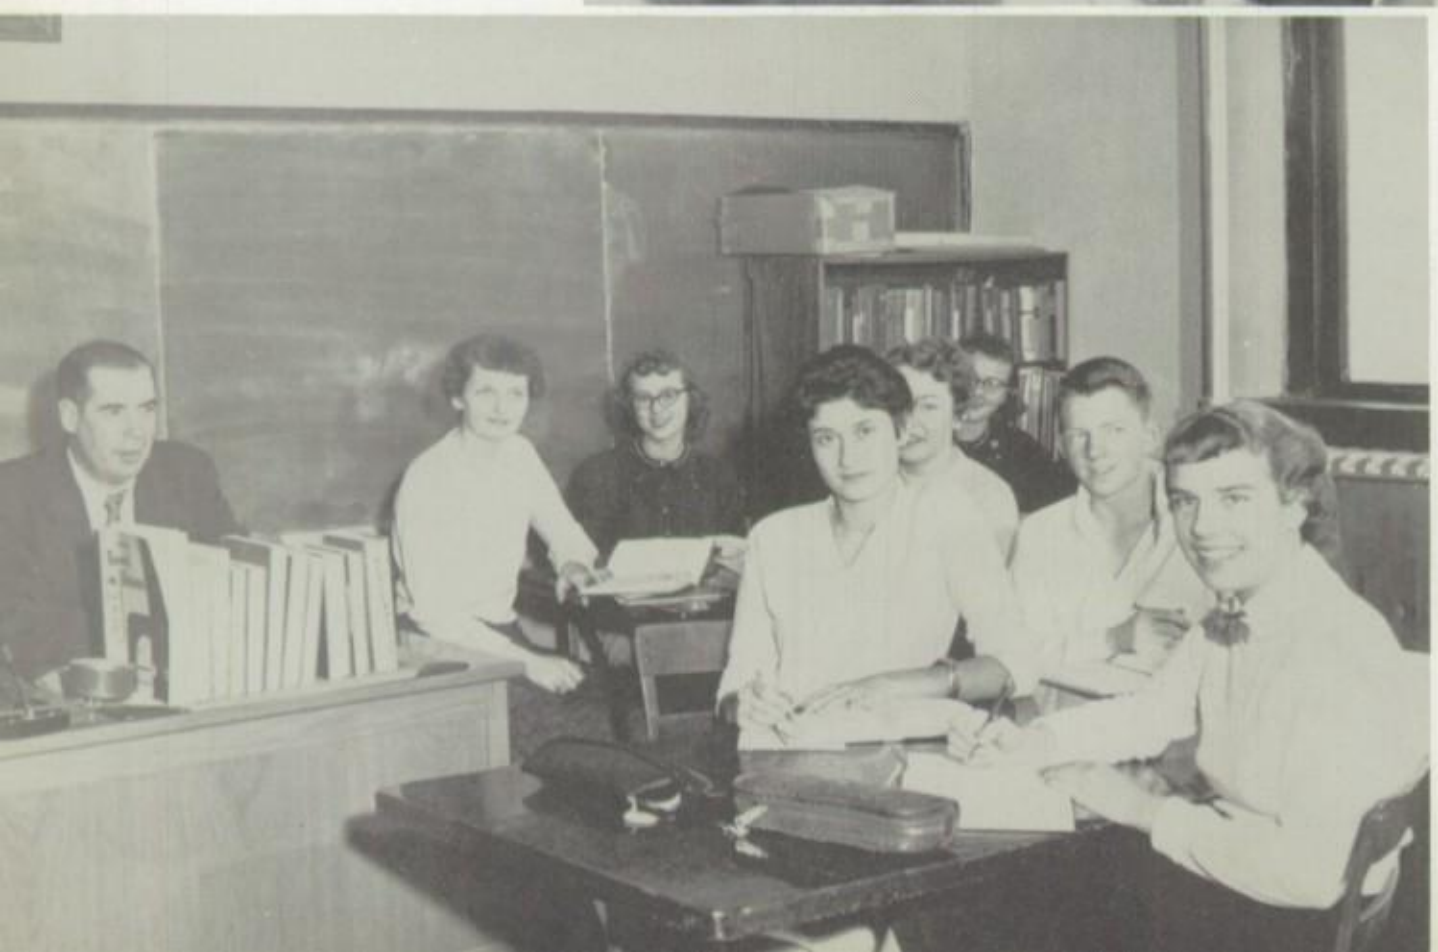
The Freshman English Class seems to be more interested in the camera than their English lesson "Smile Ave" - "Over here Jerry"



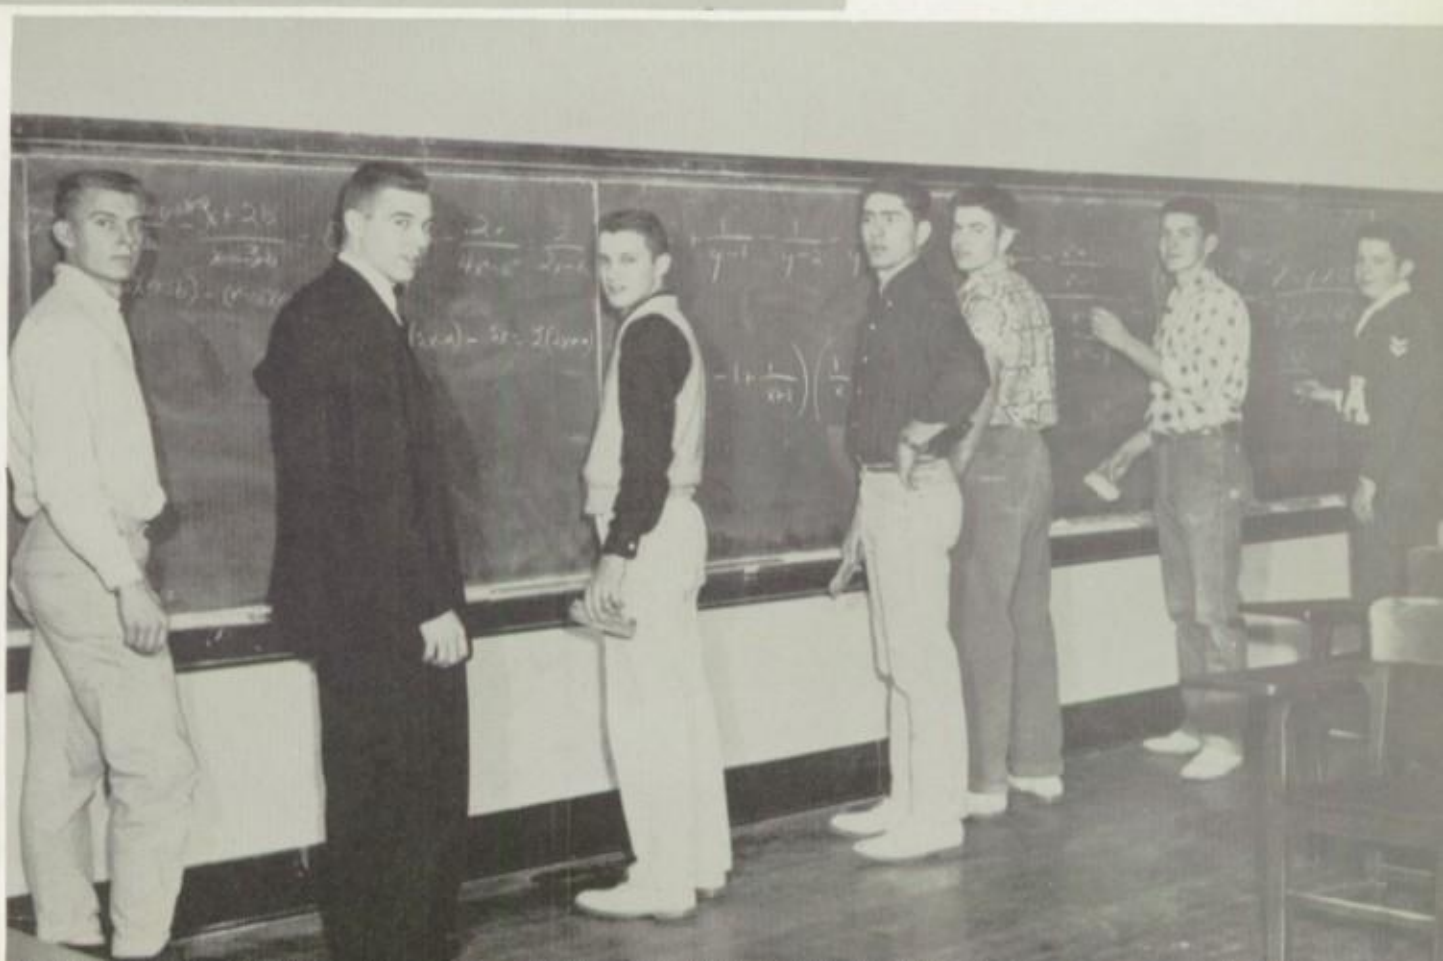
The Junior and Senior Chemistry Class are conducting an experiment "Why so glum Steve" - Donna is interested in the outcome of this experiment - "Everybody stand back" - "Not too much heat, Steve"



Looks like Morris and his "run away girls" Shorthand Class is on the rampage again. "Girls, Girls" - No offense Lynn.

It is time for Mr. John's, Sophomore History Class. Students you could study better if your books were open.

Looks like Mrs. Scaglia and her girls' Home Economics class are baking today. "Don't burn your nose, Linda."



Mr. Thompson shows the Advanced Algebra Class how the problem is solved. Aren't you interested, boys?

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class presented their play "Beans for Breadfast," October 17 and 18, with Mrs. White as their director.

Mimi Kent, a flighty widow who dreams of wealth, has just moved into her new ranch-type home with her son, Jarel, and her daughter, Peggy. Poor Mimi has spent practically all her late husband's life insurance, building her new home. Unfortunately, her money ran out before she could furnish it properly.

Mimi gets on her children's nerves because she is forever quoting Opal Bean, a girlhood chum with whom she has kept up a correspondence but hasn't seen in twenty years. Now Mimi is frightfully jealous of Opal because she married a wealthy Chicago banker and is forever bragging about her wonderful financial success. What Mimi doesn't know is that the Beans are just as poor as she.

When Mimi learns that Opal and her family are coming for a visit she becomes frantic, and with the help of her neighbor's possessions, she tries to impress the Bean family.

Everything seems to be sailing along fairly smooth when to Mimi's horrified surprise, in pops a poor relative, old Uncle Podger from the Ozarks. In his bluff, hearty way he spills some family truths to the Beans about the Kent's background.

From this point on, through lovers' quarrels, fainting, and tears of humilation, they manage to get into many hilarious complications that keep the audience laughing.

THE BOARDING HOUSE REACH

For many years now, thirteen-year-old Wilbur Maxwell has wanted a bicyle. He's dreamed of peddling through town, getting fond gazes from the girls, and boastfully shouting, "Look, no hands!" But he still can't persuade Mama and Papa to jar down -- to get him one. So, when Pop is called away for a week-long business trip, Mom is persuaded to go with him for sort of a second honymoon, and the house is left in charge of sister Connie and sister Betty Lou, Wilbur gets his idea. He'll make his own money and buy his own bicycle. He'll open up a boarding house right here. Wilbur knows there's a frightful housing shortage, he knows people need places to sleep, and he knows for a whole week he can really clean up and just be rolling in bicycles.

So into the paper goes the ad, and that night the whole Maxwell house is crawling with people. First comes Lucy Burns, a sort of walking encyclopedia; then Mrs. Mott, who never says a word all through the play, just comes in, sits down, gets up, and walks out. Then come Ninety-Volt Jones, a beat-up pug, and his wrestling wife, Ruby; they're followed by Mr. Potter, an insurance salesman; and next come Limpy McGuire and his wife, Nora. Now every room in the house is full, Wilbur's doing a bang-up business, and then it happens. Mama and Papa Maxwell, at two o'clock of the next morning, come dragging home--Papa forgot his brief case.

From there on out, it's one mess after another. Papa has an important business conference the next morning, but he has to sleep on the floor, he can't get in to shave, and he can't even read his own paper. Things are going 'round and 'round. Finally, it's discovered somebody in the house is a bank robber, and poor Papa is mistakenly carted off to the clink. What a mess now! And before it's all finally straightened out and Wilbur has his bicycle.

PROPHECY

As the wheels of time churn. Time flies more swiftly for some than for others. The year is 1973, fifteen years after the graduation of the class of 1958 from Arlington High School. Let's look and see how fate has treated each of the fifteen members of the class. As we focus our super sonic T. V. set we shall see the accomplishments of the class. Now the picture is becoming sharper and I can tell we are in New York at the Metro-Politan Opera House and I hear the voice of our class President, Lawrence Parks singing the new opera "Scratch" by Ivanawful Itch, Larry is also famous for his many flower and rock gardens. The camera has now turned to a dense jungle and I see Phil Hester wading through a swamp with a large box on his head. Phil became very despondent over a false love affair and left the U.S.A. He is now selling refrigerators to the tribes in South Africa. The camera has now switched to another part of the jungle and we now see the world famous "Long Tall Hunter" Florence Parks. When we asked her what she was hunting, she replied "Long Tall Men" of course."

The scene has completely changed now and the camera is down under the sea and we now can see a big -- no it's not what we thought, its Bonnie Rucker the worlds renown deep sea diver. I believe she has a word for us. "Blub; blub." Thank you for that wonderful message Bonnie. Now the camera takes us to gay exotic Mexico and the largest Bull Fighting Ring in the world. As the matadore enters, the crowd goes wild. It's Bill Josea" Smith, world's leading play boy and bull fighter. Bill says he likes bull fighting because it keeps his mind off his money and girls. As time goes by the camera starts to move faster and we are now in Bent Fork, Tennessee for the 1973 Olympic Game where Rose Henby is trying for the 20 foot mark.

The sound of exotic music reaches our ears, and we see beautiful girls. Why these are the 43 wives of Prince Ali Keith Fansler of South Arabia. I guess Keith decided that grass was greener on the other side of the fence. And now we move to North Arabia where 40,000 have gathered to watch the great bubble dancer Phyllis Logan. Don't go near a pin Phyllis.

The building that is on our screen now is rolling in steam. Joy Irvine has a new reducing plan called "Reducing with Joy." It's been said that people entering this building rich, fat, flabby and forty leave broke, chubby and feeling like 70. A sound believer in Joy's program is Ethel Vantyle who is just about to be crowned Miss America of Europe. Nice going Ethel.

As the camera moves on we can see that success has really hit Steve Wooldridge for he is the president of his own nation-wide company, The Dog Catchers of America. Steve says, "If it has four legs and a tail, we'll bring it in."

A terrific roar is heard as the camera turns to a hugh arena where a small blonde haired girl is tossing her opponent around with the greatest of ease. As the bell rings Janet "The Mauler" Heath is crowned Worlds Ladies Wrestling Champ. Now we are in New York where the slim and graceful JoAnn Binder is giving her balleria act. Oops Poor JoAnn didn't see the edge of the stage.

Fifteen million Indians in India are watching Donna Joyner charm a 93 foot cobra. We now see the entrance of the Big Top. As the camera leads in side, we can see Joyce Mann swinging from bar to bar on the trapeze. We also understand she just wrote a new song entitled "Don't Let Go."

The picture is dimming and slowly fading away. We can see that the class has made the most out of their time and opportunities. We hope that they will continue to be leaders and pursuers of tomorrow.
